25CR PEOPLE BROUGHT OUT OF POVERTY IN 9 YRS: PM MODI

Solapur (Maharashtra) Agencies

t least 25 crore people have been lifted out of poverty in India in the last nine years as a result of the "tapasya" and true dedication of the government towards the poor, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said here on Friday

He said that earlier, poverty alleviation programmes in the country lacked results owing to the absence of proper intent and the pilferage by the middle-men.

"This is the outcome of the clean intentions and policies favouring the empowerment of the poor plus the commitment to the nation," the PM said, adding that 'Modi ki Guarantee is about the commitment to take the benefit of the government schemes directly to the beneficiaries.

The PM said in the last 10 years, more than Rs 30 lakh-crore have been transferred directly to the accounts of farmers, women, youth and poor, while 10 crore fake beneficiaries were weeded out by using the 'JAM' mode

-- Jan Dhan-Aadhar-Mobile. PM Modi said this while speaking at an event to hand over 15,000 houses at RAY Nagar Housing Society in Solapur under the Prime Minister Awas Yojana-Urban, while another 15,000 shall come up in the 350 acres housing complex. This was a dream come true for the 15,000 family-beneficiaries like handloom and power-loom workers, construction labourers, street vendors, 'beedi' makers, drivers, rickshaw-pullers, and others in the unorganised sectors, and PM Modi had laid the foundation stone for the complex in 2019. The project was conceived by the former Communist Party of India-Marxist state secretary and 3-time MLA Narsayya Adam, 79, who struggled for long to ensure a respectable dwelling for the people eking out a living in the unorganised sectors. Sharing the dais with PM Modi and other dignitaries, Adam termed it as "a dream come true" for all the people in the informal sector, and along with the homes all other amenities like electricity and water would also be provided. The RAY Nagar is sprawled across 350acres of land and the project of 30,000 homes would also have seven water tanks, a sewage treatment plant, solid waste management facility, a government school and a hospital, good internal roads and other civic amenities. Though the erstwhile Congress-Nationalist Congress Party regime decided to build the colony, it hung and only after 2014, when Bharatiya Janata Party-Shiv Sena's CM Devendra Fadnavis took office, the project was fast-tracked and he even got it included under the PMAY.

The project suffered another major delay during the Covid-19 pandemic years, plus the change of government in 2019, but finally the scheme was completed and launched by the PM Modi on Friday.

The Prime Minister also went around a couple of sample homes in the complex and expressed his satisfaction at the work, which will benefit thousands of beedi makers as Solapur is one of the beedi manufacturing hubs in the country. On the occasion, the PM also distributed the first and second instalments of the PM-SVANIDHI scheme to 10,000 people, laid the foundation stone for 8 AMRUT Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation) projects.

PM Modi was seen becoming emotional at one point as he distributed the new home keys to the beneficiaries with the event attended by Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde, Deputy CMs Fadnavis and Ajit Pawar, and other elected leaders, and a large number of families who will move to their new dwellings.

HOUTHIS CLAIM RESPONSIBILITY FOR NEW MISSILE ATTACK ON US SHIP

/emen's Houthi militia on Friday claimed responsibility for launching a fresh missile strike on a US ship in the Gulf of Aden amid escalating tensions over the rebel group's continued attacks in the Red Sea region.

"The naval forces of the Yemeni Armed Forces (Houthi) carried out an attack targeting US ship (Chem Ranger) in the Gulf of Aden with several appropriate naval missiles, and the hit was accurate," Xinhua news agency quoted Yahya Sarea, a Houthi military spokesman, as saying n a statement broadcast by the group's

'The Yemeni Armed Forces (Houthi) confirm that a retaliation to the American and British attacks is inevitable and that any new aggression will not go unpunished," the spokesman said. The attacks "will continue until a ceasefire in the Palestinian enclave of Gaza Strip is imposed, and the sie is lifted", Sarea said, adding that their escalation comes in support of the Confirming the attack, the US Central Command (CENTCOM) on Friday said that at about 9 p.m. on Thursday night, "Iranian-backed Houthi terrorists launched two antiship ballistic missiles at M/V Chem Ranger, a Marshall Island-flagged, US-owned, Greek-operated tanker ship"."The crew observed the missiles impact the water near the ship. There were no reported injuries or damage to the ship. The ship has continued underway," the CENTCOM said in a post on X.

According to the Central Command, this was the third Houthi attack on a commercial shipping vessel in three days

Earlier on Thursday, US President Joe Biden conceded that US strikes against the Houthis were not deterring the group's attacks in the Red

He also said that his administration returned the Houthi armed group to the "terrorist" list, and the decision will take effect next month if the Houthis don't stop threatening the shipping lines.

Houthis have denounced the redesignation and said it was for "political purposes".

Meanwhile, Deputy Pentagon Press Secretary Sabrina Singh said the US has "been able to degrade and severely disrupt and destroy a significant number" of Houthi capabilities. "We never said that the Houthis would immediately stop," CNN quoted Singh as saying. "That is something that they will have to make that decision and that calculation to do

Thursday night's attack came after the US and UK bombed Houthi sites in northern Yemen at dawn. The strikes hit Houthi targets in five provinces, including Hodeidah, the main port on the Red Sea coast controlled by the militia group.

The attack followed the Houthis claim of a missile strike on a US ship in the Gulf of Aden on Wednesday night.The Houthis have escalated their attacks in the Red Sea since the Israel-Hamas war broke out on October 7, 2023, demanding an end to Israeli attacks and siege on Gaza.

The Houthis have controlled much of northern Yemen, including the capital Sanaa and the strategic Red Sea port city of Hodeidah, since ousting the internationally recognised Yemeni government in 2014.

Trump's lawyers warn of 'chaos and bedlam' if states allowed to bar him from 2024 ballot

Washington | Agencies

The lawyers of former US President Donald Trump have warned of "chaos and bedlam" if states are allowed to bar him from the ballot for this year's presidential election.

Last month, the Colorado Supreme Court had said that Trump is constitutionally ineligible to run in 2024 because the 14th Amendment's ban on insurrectionists holding office covers his conduct on January 6, 2021, the day of the Capitol riots, reports

"The Court should reverse the Colorado decision because President Trump is not even subject to section 3, as the President is not an 'officer of the United States' under the Constitution. And even if President Trump were subject to section 3 he did not 'engage in' anything that qualifies as 'insurrection'," Trump's the US Supreme Court on Thursday.

The efforts "promise to unleash chaos and bedlam if other state courts and state officials follow Colorado's lead and exclude the likely Republican presidential nominee from their ballots", the lawyers further argued.Earlier this month, the US Supreme Court agreed to hear the case, accepting an appeal brought by Trump.The justices are separately involved in other matters that could impact the federal criminal case against the former President, CNN reported.

The Colorado ruling has been on pause pending the US Supreme Court's resolution of the case, and the state's top election official has certified the 2024 presidential primary ballots with Trump's name on the Republican ballot.

If the justices conclude Trump is ineligible for public office before Colorado's primary, then any votes cast for him would not be counted

Oral arguments in the Colorado case are scheduled for February 8.

N.Korea tests underwater nuke weapons system in response to trilateral drills

Torth Korea on Friday said it has tested an underwater nuclear weapons system under development in response to the latest maritime trilateral drills involving South Korea, the US and Japan.

According to Pyongyang's official Korean Central News Agency (KCNA), North Korean Defence Ministry said the country conducted an important test of the Haeil-5-23 in the East Sea, denouncing this week's naval drills involving a US nuclear aircraft carrier as "reckless confrontation hysteria".

The KCNA did not disclose details, including the weapons's specifications and the test date, reports Yonhap News Agency.

"Our army's underwater nuke-based countering posture is being further rounded off, and its various maritime and underwater responsive actions will continue to deter the hostile military maneuvers of the navies of the US and its allies," a spokesman of the Ministry said in a statement carried by the

The official condemned the three nations for "seriously threatening the security" of North Korea and sternly warned of "catastrophic consequences" for their acts, the report said.

South Korea, the US and Japan jointly conducted naval drills involving the USS Carl Vinson nuclear-powered aircraft carrier from Monday to Wednesday, following Pyongyang's latest launch of a hypersonic missile. Pyongyang has long denounced joint military drills between Seoul and Washington as a rehearsal for an invasion. In March last year, North Korea first made public a test of its underwater attack drone, the Haeil-1, claiming the "secret weapon" is capable of generating a "radioactive tsunami" and stealthily attacking enemies.

At 16.9 degrees Celsius, Mumbai sees second coldest day this season

Team Absolute Mumbai

umbai woke up to its second coldest day Friday as the India Meteorological Department's (IMD's) Santacruz observatory recorded a minimum temperature of 16.9 degrees Celsius. As per the weather bureau, the city is slated to enjoy pleasant weather for the next 2-3 days, at least, before it gets warm again.

Maximum temperatures also dipped two degrees below normal, with Santacruz and Colaba stations registering 29 and 28.6

degrees Celsius respectively. Earlier this week, bringing respite from hot and humid weather which Mumbai had been reeling under for a while, minimum temperatures had dropped to 16.2 degrees Celsius in the city, which was the coldest day of the season, so far.

"There is a northerly component to the change because of which temperatures have been dipping. For the next two to three days, the city will experience very pleasant weather," Sushma Nair, a scientist from IMD Mumbai, told However, Nair said Mumbai should brace itself for slightly higher temperatures next week.

Owing to several factors, Mumbai is experiencing a warmer winter this season. On January 12, with maximum temperatures soaring to 35.7 degrees Celsius, the city recorded its warmest January day in the past seven

For perspective, even the city's lowest temperature of the season, at 16.2 degrees Celsius on January 16, was much higher than last year's lowest temperature, which slid to 13.6 degrees Celsius around the same time (mid-January). Responding to questions on a further drop, Nair said, "Currently, there is no synopsis that indicates a further drop. The temperatures are comparatively higher than last year's lowest temperature as we are experiencing no western disturbances, which is responsible for bringing snowfall in the north. Besides this, even the winds are not entirely northerly. There is only a northerly component in the air, which is largely south easterly.

India conceded an early goal to Japan off a penalty corner and then could not score despite dominating the entire match, making nearly a dozen circle entries, taking 11 shots at the goal and earning nine penalty corners as compared to four by their opponents.

Schopman said her team was ready physically and mentally for the match despite a heartbreaking 4-3 defeat to Germany in a sudden-death shoot-out in the semifinal on Thursday.

Within 24 hours, they were back on the turf and played another thriller. "I think they were ready. We didn't start well defensively and sometimes you know it can happen. But again, what I see is a team that fought back and look, we dominated the entire game. After such domination, we should have scored a goal and we didn't," said

The result was that Schopman's Indian team failed to qualify for their successive Olympic Games while Japan made it to their sixth.

Asked what was the reason for India's failure to score a goal against Japan, Schopman said she did not have any answer for that "If I knew the answer for why we didn't (score), then I wouldn't be standing here. Probably because then I would have given them that answer during the game. And the only thing I can say is they were trying, they were fighting, they

"If you look at the match, we probably haven't played this dominant against Japan in the last three games we played against them. But this time we didn't score and the other games we scored and they didn't," said the 46-year-old coach, a former Olympic Games medal-

There are two Paris quota places available in each of the events and one country can only take one quota place. India are searching for their first Paris quota in Skeet. The Indian Shooting squad has so far bagged a record 17 Paris quota

India's number one Ganemat, a winner of four world cup medals in Olympic events, was the most successful Indian on the day after posting rounds of 24,24 and 23. She was one behind Gao Jinmei of China and one ahead of Maheshwari, who had rounds of 23, 23 and 24, to stay in contention. Raiza Dhillon was only slightly behind in eighth with a score of 67, a point below the top-six mark.

head of England's Test tour of India starting on January 25 in Hyderabad, young leg-spinner Rehan Ahmed said he has accepted the fact that it will be challenging for him to excel in the sub-continental conditions of the upcoming series.

"I still get shocked when I get picked. It's Test cricket, it's a big thing, I think about it every day. It is the hardest game ever. I've accepted it's going to be hard. I'll try my best. That's all I can control.'

"I'm just looking forward to playing Test cricket again. I will try and hold my speed a bit in India: with the wicket doing what it does, less time to react is the best way to go," said Ahmed to The Ahmed had registered himself for the IPL auction, but withdrew later. Asked about it, he said, "The least I could do is make sure I'm fully ready for whatever I can be for England. There's a lot of time for IPL and stuff if I get the chance again, and if I don't get the chance to do it, I'm fine with that as well.

"I spoke to a couple of people - if you want a long career, you don't want to burn out too soon. Just being ready for England is my main priority.'

Ahmed is currently with the England Test team in Abu Dhabi for a pre-series preparatory camp. From Hyderabad, the series between India and England will happen at Visakhapatnam (February 2-6), Rajkot (February 15-19), Ranchi (February 23-27) and Dharamshala Ahmed also spoke about the learn-Adil Rashid during the white-ball tour of the West Indies last month. "I speak to Rash a lot about bowling. I don't like when I get told loads of technical things. I'm more tactical, so about field placings and plans.'

"I get more talking about that than talking about footwork and front arm. We both understand I'm not the bowler he is, he's not the bowler I am - completely different, which makes it more interesting.

"Rash went through a lot, I think, when he was younger: he got picked and then he didn't play for England for six, seven years. And then he came back and became the best in the world. So he's made a pathway for us.'

India aim for winning start in Men's U19 WC with opener against Bangladesh

Bloemfontein | Agencies

t is that time of the year when youngsters will be aiming to leave their mark in the Men's U19 World Cup. India, the defending champions, enter the 2024 edition of the compe tition to make a winning start against Bangladesh in their tournament opener at the Mangaung Oval on Saturday.

India have been the most successful team in this showpiece event, winning the World Cup in 2000, 2008, 2012, 2018 and 2022. Their preparation for the upcoming tournament included a semi-final appearance at the ACC U19 Asia Cup, and winning the tri-series featuring South Africa and Afghanistan.

They will need to be careful of Bangladesh, who defeated them in the Asia Cup semi-final. Captain Uday Saharan top scored with 112 against the Proteas in the tri-series final, though it was a washed-out affair. Saharan was also the topscorer in their official World Cup warm-up game against Australia (74).

Born in Rajasthan, Uday moved to Punjab and has played his cricket there. He has received a lot of support from his father and even the Punjab Cricket Association has invested heavily in him.

"We'll see him play at No. 4 and 5. He played well in the triseries featuring South Africa and Afghanistan recently and scored a century against South Africa. He is a good strokemaker and is a proper batsman. He has good temperament and shows a lot of patience," said Aakash Chopra, former India cricketer, on '#AAKSHVANI' show on JioCinema.

Arshin Kulkarni, the fast-bowling all-rounder, led the team in runs at the U19 Asia Cup, and even earned an IPL 2024 deal with Lucknow Super Giants at last year's auction. "He bats in the top six and is also a pace bowler. He's a rare commodity in that sense. Everyone I have spoken to has said he's a good player. He was picked by Lucknow Super Giants for the IPL." "Hopefully, we'll see him do well at the World Cup. He was impressive in the Maharashtra Premier League and was successful with both bat and ball. He scored a 100, took four wickets and also defended six runs in the last over, all in the same match," added Chopra Vice-captain Saumy Kumar Pandey led the team in wickets during the tri-series, also taking 6/29 against Afghanistan. "He faced many challenges in childhood. Many people don't know, he was born prematurely, so it took some time for his body to develop. He fought these circumstances and developed into a left-arm spinner.

"He has the ability to keep bowling at the same spot. He's not a huge turner of the ball and varies the pace well. He is an accurate bowler and that should help him get wickets in South Africa," stated Chopra.

Fast-bowler Raj Limbani raised eyebrows by taking 7/13 (9.1) against Nepal at the ACC U19 Asia Cup. "He took 7/13 against Nepal in the U-19 ACC Cup. He swings the ball very well. He tries to hit the pads regularly. Some of the balls straighten and he's capable of finding the outside edges. It will be interesting to see how he bowls on South African pitches," added Chopra.

There's also Musheer Khan, the left-arm spin bowling allrounder, who's the younger brother of prolific run-scorer Sarfaraz Khan, who himself played 2014 and 2016 U19 World

There are shades of Sarfaraz in him when it comes to scoring heavily. His style of batting is quite interesting. He looks slightly off-balance, looks a bit ungainly but he scores a lot of runs and scores at a good pace. He's someone who's actually a game-changer. I feel he'll grab his opportunities here as he knows well that you don't get too many opportunities to rise to the top," concluded Chopra. Total of 16 teams will be divided into groups of four each. The top three teams from each group will qualify for the Super Sixes stage, starting on January 30. At that stage, 12 teams will be divided into two groups of six each.

Hockey Olympic Qualifiers: Defensive Japan break Indian hearts with 1-0 win, claim Olympic berth

he Indian women's hockey team attacked in waves, applied full press and earned several penalty corners but the only thing could not do was score as Japan survived many anxious moments to emerge 1-0 winner in the Women's FIH Hockey Olympic Qualifiers and claimed a berth in the Paris Olympic Games later this year.

The Japanese crowded their half, defended in numbers and absorbed all the pressure as they thwarted the Indians' every attempt to finish third at the Marang Gomke Jaipal Singh Astro-Turf Hockey Stadium here on Friday.

It was just not India's day as they ended on the wrong end of the result despite trying their best, failing to make it to their third Olympic Games in a row. India had finished fourth in the Tokyo Olympic Games but were left heartbroken as they finished fourth in the qualifiers.

India dominated possession, made 13 circle entries as compared to eight by the Japanese, had 11 shots at the goal and earned nine penalty corners as compared to four by their opponents, But in the end, Kana Urata's penalty corner goal in the sixth minute proved enough for Japan to win the match and book a

After the two sides made a couple of attacks at the start of the third quarter, India earned their third penalty corner because of a foul on Salima. Deepika's flick was deflected onto the crossbar by the goalkeeper Nakamura.

India came close again with just eight minutes remaining in the match when Lalremsiami could not latch onto a ball but it was cleared dangerously by a defender.

The hosts earned another penalty corner but Deepika's shot went in vain. Off the rebound, Sangita took a shot but goalkeeper Akio Tanaka blocked it. India tried for a penalty corner asking for a dangerous play, and India earned their eighth penalty corner. But it was not a clean trap and the indirect variation was saved by the goalkeeper.

Nabi was within his right to run, says R Ashwin on Mohammad Nabi-Rohit Sharma controversy

Team Absolute New Delhi ndia off-spinner Ravichandran

Ashwin has weighed in on the .Mohammed Nabi extra run controversy during the third T20I between India and Afghanistan. As the final ball of the first super over played out, Nabi, attempting a single, found himself amid a contentious situation. Sanju Samson's throw from behind the stumps struck Nabi's leg, deflecting towards long-on and enabling the batsmen to snatch two additional runs.

Indian skipper perturbed, confronted Nabi, arguing that the extra runs went against the essence of the game. However, the onfield umpires deemed the runs legitimate, setting off a storm of opinions on sportsmanship.

Former Indian cricketer Aakash Chopra and the head coach of the Indian team, Rahul Dravid, defended Nabi's decision, asserting that any player would have seized the opportunity in a high-stakes scenario. However, Indian off-spinner R Ashwin took a different stance, dismissing the talk about the 'spirit of cricket.'

Ashwin emphasized a batter's right to take a run when a fielder attempts to get them run out, and the ball deflects off their body. "When a fielder throws to get me run out and the ball deflects off my body, I am within my right to run. Spirit of cricket, yet again, sorry," said Ashwin on his YouTube channel.

Acknowledging the disappointment within the Indian camp, Ashwin added that irritations naturally arise when a team feels affected on the field. He highlighted the subjective nature of such situations. "Virat Kohli stopped the ball with his leg and wondered what was happening. There are two sides to this story. If we are the affected party on the field, we'll get irritated with whatever happens. 'We might not have done this if we were on the field' - that is our personal opinion and view," Ashwin added.

Ashwin also heaped praise on Rinku Singh, acknowledging the youngster's composure under pressure. "He is somebody I'd call a left-handed Dhoni. I can't compare him to Dhoni just yet because Dhoni is too big. But, I am talking about the composure that he brings," said the off-spinner.

The story of Rinku's journey from the Kolkata Knight Riders' bench to the national team is one of dedication and perseverance. Ashwin shared an anecdote about Rinku's time with KKR, revealing how the young batter collected balls during practice, showcasing his commitment and hunger for improve-

"Since then, he has been with the franchise for so long, put in the hard work for UP and showed that he's always available to get the Indian team out of a composure doesn't change whether the team is batting first or chasing. His composure towards the back end of the innings is a bonus," added Ashwin.

Rinku, a product of his stellar performance in the 2023 Indian Premier League (IPL) season, had been drafted into the T20I squad. His immediate impact in the finisher's role was nothing short of spectacular. Scoring an unbeaten 69* off 39 balls, he orchestrated a remarkable partnership of 190 runs for the fifth wicket with skipper Rohit Sharma. The left-hander's resilience and ability to navigate pressure situations were the defining traits of his innings.

Rinku Singh's T20I journey, which began against Ireland in August 2023, has been nothing short of remarkable With 356 runs at an average of 89 and a strike rate of 176.23 in 11 T20Is, he has not only secured his place in the national squad but has also become a beacon of hope in challenging situations.

Shoaib Bashir will be the find of series, he will surely trouble Virat Kohli: Monty Panesar →hile veteran Jack Leach will lead England's main spinner against India, Shoaib Bashir, a 20-year-old uncapped offspinner will be the one to keep an eye on. So says Monty Panesar, who was part of the victorious 2012 England squad and backs England spinners to turn the tide in favour of the tourists.

In the bustling city of Hyderabad, anticipation hung thick in the air as the Rajiv Gandhi International Stadium prepared to host the commencement of a riveting five-match Test series between cricket giants India and England on January 25. The stakes are high, especially considering India's 3-1 triumph when the two teams clashed in 2021.

Uncapped spinners Tom Hartley and Bashir have been named in England's 16-member squad for a five-match Test tour of India starting next month. The off-spin duo joined fast-bowler Gus Atkinson as the three uncapped players at the Test level, though he and Hartley have been capped in white-ball cricket.

Bashir made his First-Class debut at 19 this year in June, facing a baptism of fire against Sir Alastair Cook at Chelmsford. Though he was wicketless on Day One for Somerset, his control and temperament impressed onlookers, including the England scouts.

Subsequent performances, like taking 10 wickets in six First-Class games, earned Bashir a call-up to England Lions' recent training camp in the UAE, where Hartley was included too. Bashir took 10 wickets in the County Championship last season, though the trouble he caused experienced batters has outweighed the impact he had in the wicket column.

victorious 2012 England squad, buzzing with excitement - Shoaib Bashir, a 20year-old uncapped offspinner. Panesar believes Bashir's young and diverse experience in county cricket would prove troublesome for Indian legends, especially Virat Kohli and Shubhman Gill, who shared a penchant for driving

"I believe he (Shoaib Bashir) is the one whom we should have an eye on, and he will surely be a trouble for the Indian batters. The Indian red-soil turning track will be a dream pitch for him. I have met him a few times in England and watched him closely believe me, he has some exceptional talents. With his high-arm action, he will drag the batsman forward or will force them to cut with a slip and gully," Monty Panesar told IANS.

"He will be on the top against Virat Kohli and Shubhman Gill who have the same nature of play, They love to play drive the ball and that is where he the same pitch, he can bring the ball back to wicket from outside off and also with attacking slip he will force them to
