MANIPUR: TRIBALS PROTEST AGAINST KILLINGS, DEMANDING REIMPOSITION OF AFSPA

housands of tribal women on Saturday organised massive demonstrations in different districts of Manipur specially in Kangpokpi district to protest the killing of three Village Defence Volunteers (VDV) belonging to Kuki tribals in Ukhrul district on Friday.

Due to the protests movement of vehicles along the National Highway-2 (Imphal-Dimapur), the surface lifeline of Manipur, remained disrupted for the entire day.

The protesters said that the three VDV were killed by the rival community barely two days after Chief Minister N. Biren Singh in his Independence Day speech called for 'forgive and forget' and to live peace-

The protests were organised by the Committee on Tribal Unity (CoTU), which also submitted a memorandum to Prime Minister Narendra Modi demanding to re-impose Armed Forces (Special Power) Act, 1958 (AFSPA) in all six valley districts inhabited by the non-tribals Meiteis. "If the AFSPA reimposed in the valley districts, then the Army and Para military forces would be able to contain the violence in these areas," said the memorandum, submitted through the Deputy Commissioner of Kangpokpi district.

CoTU media cell coordinator Lun Kipgen said that as the Center was not imposing President's rule in Manipur, the government must reimpose AFSPA in the valley districts and redeployment of the Assam Rifles in those tribal areas from where they were withdrawn.

Right activist Irom Sharmila held a hunger strike for 16 long years demanding to repeal the AFSPA after 10 people were killed by the paramilitary forces at a bus stop at Malom Makha Leikai in Manipur's Imphal West District in November 2000.

The CoTU in its memorandum expressed discontentment against the Union Home Minister, Amit Shah's statement in the Lok Sabha

"The Kuki-Zo people have been deeply hurt by the irresponsible statement made by the Union Home Minister on August 9 stating that the ethnic violence is caused by the influx of illegal immigrants from

He also named a non-existing outfit called Kuki Democratic Front based in Myanmar for causing violence in the state. "Such irresponsible statement of the Union Home Minister has deepened the wounds of the Kuki-Zo people who are the victims of the ethnic cleansing perpetrated by the majority Meitei community.

The tribal body also demanded to revoke FIRs against academics and intellectuals.

"The COTU is saddened to learn that a series of FIRs have been registered against academics and intellectuals belonging to the Kuki Zo tribal communities by various individuals and organisations of the majority community," the memorandum said urging the Prime Minister to look into the undemocratic filings of FIR so that critical thinking academicians and intellectuals are given space for constructive analysis of the current

Heavy rain this monsoon has not only led to the emergence of fresh landslide points along the highway but has also activated old ones due to which the traffic is getting disrupted frequently, he said.

National Highways and Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited (NHIDCL) General Manager Shailendra Kumar, who is involved in the construction of the National Highway in the area, told PTI that to prevent landslides, concrete blocks had been constructed on the banks of the Alaknanda which had stopped the erosion of the river.

The road had since been stable but the rise in the water level in the Alaknanda is making water flow over the concrete blocks which may have led to increased subsidence in the area, Kumar said.Itanagar: Landslides triggered by incessant rains in the past couple of days have snapped road links to several Arunachal penAI's artificial intelligence chatbot ChatGPT has a significant and systemic Left-wing bias, according to a new study. Published in the journal 'Public

Choice', the findings show that ChatGPT's responses favour the Democrats in the US, the Labour Party in the UK, and President Lula da Silva of the Workers' Party in Brazil. Concerns of an inbuilt political bias in ChatGPT have been raised previously but this is the first large scale study using a consistent, evidencedbased analysis. "With the growing use by the public of AI-powered systems to find out facts and create new content, it is important that the output of popular platforms such as ChatGPT is as impartial as possible," said lead author Fabio Motoki of Norwich Business School at the University of East Anglia in the UK.

"The presence of political bias can influence user views and has potential implications for political and electoral processes. Our findings reinforce concerns that AI systems could replicate, or even amplify, the existing challenges posed by the Internet and social media," Motoki said. The researchers developed an innovative new method to test ChatGPT's political neutrality.

The platform was asked to impersonate individuals from across the political spectrum while answering a series of more than 60 ideological questions.

The responses were then compared to the platform's default answers to the same set of questions -- allowing the researchers to measure the degree to which ChatGPT's responses were associated with a particular political

To overcome difficulties caused by the inherent randomness of 'large language models' that power AI platforms such as ChatGPT, each question was asked 100 times and the different responses were collected.

These multiple responses were then put through a 1000-repetition 'bootstrap' (a method of re-sampling the original data) to further increase the reliability of the inferences drawn from the generated text.

"Due to the model's randomness, even when impersonating a Democrat, sometimes ChatGPT answers would lean towards the right of the political spectrum," said coauthor Victor Rodrigues.

A number of further tests were undertaken to ensure the method was as rigorous as possible. In a 'doseresponse test' ChatGPT was asked to impersonate radical political posi-

In a 'placebo test', it was asked politically-neutral questions. And in a 'profession-politics alignment test', it was asked to impersonate different types of professionals.

In addition to political bias, the tool can be used to measure other types of biases in ChatGPT's responses.

While the research project did not set out to determine the reasons for the political bias, the findings did point towards two potential sources.

The first was the training dataset -which may have biases within it, or added to it by the human developers, which the developers' 'cleaning' procedure had failed to remove.

The second potential source was the algorithm itself, which may be amplifying existing biases in the training data.

Amit Shah to release 'report card' of BJP govt in MP on Sunday

Team Absolute Rhonal

nion Home Minister Amit Shah will on Sunday release a detailed 'report card' of over 18 years of BJP rule in pollbound Madhya Pradesh.

While the 'report card' will highlight the progress witnessed in the last two decades, the opposition Congress apparently has played a master stroke by releasing a charge-sheet against the ruling side.

The BJP's report card will narrate the story of progressive Madhya Pradesh after it formed the government in 2003 and remained in power till today (barring December 2018 to March 2020), of which or more than 16 years, the government has been headed by current Chief Minister Shivraj Singh

Shivraj Singh
Chouhan. Elaborating on Shah's August 20 visit to Bhopal and Gwalior, state BJP chief V. D. Sharma said that the Union Minister Shah will present in Bhopal the Garib Kalyan (poor sections welfare) centric Report Card of over 18 years of BJP rule in the state.
He will subsequently travel to Gwalior to grace the party's expanded state
executive/working committee meeting at the Atal Bihari

Vajpayee Auditorium. Notably, Gwalior is the home district of three powerful BJP leaders -- Union Ministers Narendra Singh Tomar and Jyotiraditya Scindia and state home minister Narottam Mishra. It would be Shah's fourth visit to the poll-bound BJP ruled state in less than 40 days, to guide the party prepare for the coming Assembly polls.

Earlier, Shah had visited Bhopal on July 11 and July 25 and Indore on July 30. His visit to Gwalior assumes particular significance, as the BJP's internal surveys are believed to have painted a bleak picture for the party's prospects in the 34 Assembly seats-strong Gwalior-Chambal region.

As the state BJP unit has already started comparing its report card with 10 years' rule of former chief minister Digvijaya Singh-led Congress government (1993-2003), possibility of the ruling side highlighting the conditions of the state three decades back to prove it's own claimed 'golden era' of Madhya Pradesh cannot be ruled out.

The BJP's IT cell's operation to highlight subjects like economy, governance, roads, electricity, poverty rate and a lot more has been in process for the last couple of months in social media with a tag of "bantadhar" for ex-CM Digvijaya Singh.

However, the Congress led by Kamal Nath played a master stroke and issued a socalled chargesheet against CM Chouhan's nearly two decades of rule in Madhya Pradesh. State Congress president along with leader of opposition (LoP) Govind Singh released a new poster titled "Ghotala" on Friday.

It its chargesheet, the Congress has accused the BJP government of Rs 15,000 crore nutrition meal scam, Rs 12,000 crore mid-day meal scam, Rs 9,500 crore Anganwadi nal-jal scam, Rs 2,000 crore Vyapam scam and Rs 800 crore Patwari recruitment scam.

Over all, the Congress released at list of 254 scams during broke out during the 18 years rule of the BJP in Madhya Pradesh, which also includes - mining scams of worth Rs 50,000 crore, liquor scam of worth Rs 86,000 crore, electricity scam of Rs 94,000 crore and Mahakal Lok scam of Rs 100 crore.

After releasing the poster "Ghotala' to corner the ruling BJP, state Congress head Kamal Nath termed CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan as

"Thag-Raj" and asserted that some more scams would be exposed in the next three months.

NGT flagging state govt's inaction in removing encroachments sparks controversy in MP

Team Absolute Bhopal

The National Green Tribunal (NGT) flagging state government's inaction in removing encroachment from prohibited areas around Kaliyasot and Kerwa dam site here has sparked a political controversy in poll-bound Madhya Pradesh.

Senior Congress MLA Govind Singh, who is also the Leader of Opposition (LoP) in the state Assembly, citing the tribunal's observation, launched a scathing attack on Madhya Pradesh Chief Secretary Iqbal Singh Bains. On Saturday, Singh wrote to the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) of India demanding Iqbal Singh's removal from the post.

In his letter to CEC, MLA from Lahar Assembly constituency from Bhind district - Govind Singh raised his apprehension over "transparency" during the upcoming Assembly elections in Madbya Pradech

"Despite the retirement of MP's chief secretary Iqbal Singh Bains, his tenure was being extended after every six months. Will the Assembly elections in Madhya Pradesh be held in full transparency under the tenure of Iqbal Singh Bains. I have opposed the extension of Iqbal Singh Bains as chief secretary earlier as well and had conveyed to you (CEC)," Singh's letter read.

Further, Singh urged CEC to direct the state government to remove 1985-batch IAS officer Iqbal Singh Bains from his post and to appoint a new chief secretary. Bains was to retire in November last year, but his tenure was further extended by another six months starting June 1. His extension in service was cleared by the Union government.

The fresh controversy comes a day after the NGT expressed strong displeasure over inaction on behalf of the state government to remove encroachment from prohibited areas around Kaliyasot and Kerwa dam site in Bhopal. The Tribunal also imposed a fine of Rs. five lakh on the state government.

As per the reports, chief secretary Bains had also joined the hearing virtually on the direction of the tribunal. During the hearing of the petition filed by environmentalist Subhash Pandey on Friday, the NGT sought to know action taken in compliance to its order of July 27, 2023.

Upon receiving a reply from chief secretary through state government's counsel Sachin Verma, that "there was no major encroachment in the area", the NGT asked the chief secretary whether he had read the order?. The tribunal further observed that "there is lack of coordination among the departments concerned in initiating action against the encroachers." The NGT also pointed out that the entire system of the Madhya Pradesh government seems incompetent, as counsel representing the case willing to extend the date instead of arguing properly during the hearing. Several multi-stories have been constructed on the bank of Kaliyasot and Kerwa dam in Bhopal, which has been questioned in the petition. The NGT's order for demarcation of illegal constructions within 33.3 meters from Kaliasot River bed will affect around 40,000-50,000 people and nearly 30 residential colonies in rotesting police inaction in the suicide case of his brother and sister-in law in Thane, a man chopped off his index finger, a video of which has gone viral on social Dhananjay Nanavare's shocking act was not only directed at Prime Minister Narendra Modi but also Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde. The drastic action was fueled by his frustration over the police inaction in the suicide case of his brother Nandkumar Nanavare and sister-inlaw Ujjawala Nanavare.

The heart-wrenching incident took place on August 1, when both Nandkumar and Ujjawala, residents of Ulhasnagar, ended their lives by jumping off from their terrace. Nandkumar, who worked as a personal assistant for Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) MLA Pappu Kalani and also served under Shiv Sena MLA Balaji Kinikar, left a suicide note naming several individuals for the drastic step. Dhananjay Nanavare captured the grim episode of him severing his finger on camera and voiced his anguish.

Through the video, he delivered a stern message to the government and the police, declaring, "I would keep cutting off parts of my body and offer them to the government if the police did not take any concrete action against my brother Nandukumar's murderers." Acting swiftly, the police detained four individuals mentioned in the suicide note.

Deputy Commissioner of Police (Crime Branch) for Thane, Shivtai Patil, stated, "We are probing the case and during the probe we came across four names mentioned in the suicide note by the deceased. We have detained them and are currently questioning them.'

The case initial investigation suggests that Nandkumar had reached out to prominent individuals in Ambernath and even police officials before resorting to such drastic measures. A suicide note found in his trousers' pocket contained the names of those allegedly responsible for the torment he endured, which led to the fatal decision he and his wife under-

The case had initially led to the filing of an FIR against Sangram Nikalje and other unknown individuals for abetment of suicide, under sections 306 (abetting suicide) and 34 (common intention) of the Indian Penal Code (IPC).

However, despite the passage of 18 days, no substantial progress had been made. In response to the lack of headway, Nandkumar's family appealed to the higher echelons of the Thane police to transfer the investigation to the Crime Branch. The case was officially handed over to the Anti-Extortion Cell of Thane on

It also said that those having serious corruption charges and facing allegations of assault against women are now the colleagues of Fadnavis, it said adding that he should take care of himself.

Bawankule hit out at Sena (UBT) over the editorial targeting Fadnavis. He hit out at Uddhav Thackeray, saying that he was out of his senses after losing party and power.

Speaking to reporters today in Nagpur, Bawankule said, "Whenever Shiv Sena (UBT) chief Uddhav Thackeray wants to criticise someone, he either uses the 'Saamana' daily or asks Sanjay Raut to make a statement."

Thackeray is frustrated and bewildered, he alleged."He even lost his party symbol. He is pained because he cannot return to power, Bawankule added.
